

London Erratics v Beamers

A 40 overs game. The Erratics won the toss, and elected to field.

To remove the Beamers opener, M Rosson chased the ball to the boundary, stopped it just inside, then wheeled and threw, hitting the stumps direct. The total conceded (293 runs) is a record.

Matthew Eltringham (scoring his maiden century) and Peter Osborne shared a third-wicket partnership of 180 in 86 minutes (second highest Erratics stand ever).
